DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION, POLICIES AND CLIENT AGREEMENT COLLABORATIVE DIVORCE COACHING

Welcome. I look forward to working with you – assisting you to meet your goals of a respectful collaborative divorce coaching process. You have received copies of the “Rules of Good Faith in the Collaborative Process” and the “Collaborative Law Participation Agreement” that you signed in the presence of your attorneys.

My role on the Collaborative Divorce team is one of facilitator and coach. My job is to assist you with communication impasses, mediation needs, high conflict resolution, and psycho-educational support. I can serve by attending your financial and parenting joint session with attorneys and/or meeting with you together as co-parents preparing for the separation process, and decisions and agreements that are part of your divorce. Please note that I will not give legal advice. To the extent that I provide a personal or professional opinion, recognize it is just opinion and not legal advice.

Though I will be providing psycho-educational support, I will not be serving as your therapist and my interactions with you are in no way intended to establish a patient-therapist relationship. If either or both of you see a counselor or other mental health professional, I strongly encourage you to continue in your personal work.

My role is to work with both of you – I am the facilitator for this process – not any one person individually. Please copy one another on content-related emails sent to me. I’m available to your attorneys to assist them in understanding what might best serve your needs as we all work collaboratively. Communication will be open and transparent among members of your team. The information you share with me may be disclosed to attorneys and other team members involved in this process.

If at any time you have questions about my services, please ask them. Now, let me acquaint you with a few of my operating procedures:

- Schedule – My business hours are generally between 10 AM – 4 PM Monday through Thursday.
- Fees – My billing rate for coaching/mediation services is $520/hour.
- Payment – I may request a pre-payment fee or we may determine that payment at the time of service will be adequate. You will be billed at a rate of $300/hour – this fee will apply to all my efforts supporting you including but not limited to: meetings, conferencing with professionals, e-mail, travel time and preparing written information/reports. If you object to any charge, please notify me as soon as possible so that we can discuss. There will be a $40 fee for any returned check. You may pay with cash, check or credit card.
- Appointment Times, Cancellations, No-Shows – The time that we schedule is held especially for you together. You will be charged full fee for meetings that are cancelled with less than 72 hours notice by either party. Both parties must be present for meetings scheduled as a “joint meeting” to proceed unless previous arrangements are made with the facilitator/coach. If you are late to an appointment, the remainder of the scheduled period is available for you; you will be charged at the full rate.
- Telephone Voice Mail Service – The 425/454-4510 phone number has telephone voice mail service. I pick up my messages throughout the day during business. I do not carry a beeper. If you are experiencing a crisis and need to talk to someone immediately, please use the Crisis Clinic at 206/461-3222, or any hospital emergency room for information, support or referral. Dial 911 for emergency services. I do not provide 24-hour emergency coverage during the week or on weekends. As your coach/mediator, I am not serving as your psychotherapist or substituting for primary health care; nor do I function to cover psychiatric or psychological emergencies.

- E-Mail – E-mail is routinely used to convey information, correspond with other professionals (with written permission only), newsletters or announcements. E-mail can result in a loss of confidentiality. Please let me know if you do not want e-mail utilized in our communications.
- Training and Approach to Assisting Families and Mediating Conflict – I have a Bachelor’s Degree in Nursing (University of Michigan, Ann Arbor) and a Masters of Science in Psychiatric Nursing (University of Michigan, Ann Arbor). I am a licensed Advanced Registered Nurse Practitioner in the State of Washington and am Board Certified by the American Nurses’ Association in Adult Psychiatric and Mental Health Nursing. I have completed two years of training at the Huron Valley Institute, Ann Arbor, in the advanced practice of individual and group psychotherapy. My mediation training was completed at Northwestern University. Collaborative Divorce Process training was completed in Gig Harbor and is on-going. I regularly seek professional continuing education and am also a provider of continuing education for health care and legal professionals. I have both inpatient and outpatient experience in providing counseling/consultation for children, adolescents, adults and families accumulated over more than 30 years of experience. I have taught at three universities; created and taught parent education for Evergreen Hospital, Kirkland. Assisted in developing advanced certification training for the Compassionate Listening Project – a high conflict resolution process used around the world. If you would like more information about my professional background, please ask me and/or request a copy of my vitae. I completed “Divorce Mediation” (40-hour training) at Northwestern University; have taught Mediation for Collaborative Professionals through King County DRC. I am a member of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals, Collaborative Professionals of Washington, and King County Collaborative Law.

My goal is to provide interventions, which are tailored to my clients’ specific goals and needs as relates to the specific presenting issues and well-being of their changing family. My hope is that my clients experience themselves as active, knowledgeable, and equal participants in their process. As a consequence, I rely on my clients to tell me what they are experiencing and how they are feeling about their work with me, and their progress toward goals.

- No Guarantees – Success in building a collaborative environment is dependent on many factors. Some of those factors are: Issues that are identified, the motivation of the clients to succeed, the efforts made by the clients to fulfill their responsibilities, and the clients’ commitment to collaborative processes. Despite these uncertainties, I will work with you and do my best to help you realize your goals for this process. I cannot provide guarantees.
- Coming to Closure – You are free to terminate our association at any time. However, I hope that this is a process that you and I will plan together.
- Coach’s Right and Responsibility – If at any time I believe that I am unable to work successfully with a person, I will bring this matter to the client’s attention. We will discuss the process of termination and, if desired by the client, I will assist with making a referral.
- Limitations of Subpoena Power and Errors and Omissions Liability – You will not subpoena me or any person employed by or affiliated with me to testify or provide information in any action or proceeding arising out of or connected to any way with this coaching/mediation process or any dissolution-related court action. You will not hold me liable for any error or omission in connection with this coaching/mediation process or associated documents.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES
(Please read this section carefully)

I take the highly personal nature of our work together very seriously. However, the Collaborative Divorce process requires free and open consultation between all professionals involved. It is important for me to maintain an on-going dialogue with the participating attorneys and team members regarding the information I receive from you during our interactions. By signing this document, you will give me permission to share complete information with all attorneys and team members involved in your Collaborative Divorce process.

As a form of mediation, your Collaborative Divorce process is afforded all statutory protections that apply to other forms of mediation. This means that if your collaborative process fails and you decide to proceed with formal litigation, the following privacy provisions will apply:

- You and/or your spouse will have the right to refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other person from disclosing, any mediation communication.
- The participants/team members in your family process may refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other person from disclosing, a mediation communication made by that participant.

See RCW RCW 7.07. Though there may be some exceptions, the communications that will take place during your mediation/Collaborative Law divorce process will generally be treated as privileged and will not be subject to discovery or admissible as evidence in your subsequent case.

Though I am not serving as your therapist in this context, as a licensed mental health provider, I am legally and ethically bound to make disclosures outside the collaborative law, mediation or family specialist process in the following instances:

- If I believe that you intend to physically injure yourself I will take steps to minimize your harm to yourself. This may include calling the police, a CDMHP, or whatever steps I believe are indicated.
- If you state substantial intent to physically injure another individual, I will make efforts to inform that person and also inform you of my intent.
- If I become aware of any physical or sexual abuse of a minor child, a developmentally disabled adult, or an older adult, I am required by law to notify the appropriate authority.

Signing the attached Consent for Services indicates that you have read this Disclosure Statement, initialed the Financial Agreement that follows, and agree to seek my services under these conditions. This is a legally binding agreement between us, which you are free to have reviewed by an attorney before signing. If you have any comments or concerns about signing, please address those with me directly.

Thank you again for choosing me to be part of your Collaborative Divorce team. I look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Karen Bonnell, MS

CONSENT FOR SERVICES

COLLABORATIVE DIVORCE COACHING

Client: _____ Coach: Karen Bonnell, ARNP, MS

I, the above named client, assent that I have read Karen Bonnell’s Disclosure of Information, Policies and Client Agreement in full (a total of three pages). This document included a Notice of Privacy Practices. I consent to seek the services of Karen Bonnell, MS under the conditions described in the disclosure statement. I have entered into this contract freely and know that it is the right of either myself or Karen to terminate services at any time. I know that I have the right and responsibility to ask questions and receive answers regarding the nature and progress of our work together whenever I have concerns. As part of this contract, I also agree to the following policies:

- No drugs, prescription, non-prescription, legal or illegal (including marijuana) or alcoholic beverages shall be taken prior to or during any meeting or scheduled interaction without the knowledge of the coach.
- Client is asked to notify the coach if he/she anticipates being delayed or absent from a meeting or scheduled interaction prior to the starting time.
- Client agrees to pay full charge for late cancellations (less than 72 hours) and for “no show” meetings or scheduled interactions.
- Client has reviewed, agreed to, and initialed the Financial Agreement attached.

I understand and accept that Karen Bonnell, MS, practices independently, and does not carry a beeper or attempt to maintain being “on-call” 24 hours each day. I understand and accept that she is not functioning as a psychotherapist, generally is not available to assist me in a crisis situation and I agree to utilize other community-based support systems (i.e. the Crisis Clinic or any hospital based emergency room, 9-1-1) in case of a crisis or emergency as needed.

I _____ have read and agree to the above stated policies and conditions of services.
